Vendor Access Standard

BrightCart operational document. This PDF is intentionally stored as a native text PDF so the ingestion pipeline should extract selectable text.

Third-party support vendors receive read-only production access for at most 8 hours, and every session must be tied to an approved change ticket.

Operators must record the ticket number, actor, timestamp, and reason code. Historical email or chat guidance does not override this document.

This material is synthetic training content for retrieval and parsing evaluation.